2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and other accused supplied ganja to the defacto complainant's son, who is minor. Hence, the present case came to be registered.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the co-accused was enlarged on bail and the alleged quantity of the ganja is not commercial quantity. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the quantity involved in this case is not commercial quantity and the investigation in this case is not yet completed.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the co-accused enlarged on bail, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
