COMMON ORDER

Pursuant to the conviction of the petitioners in a criminal case, order of termination came to be passed by the respondent by invoking Rule 149 (4) r.w

W.P.(MD).Nos.280, 497 & 498 of 2024

Section 77 of Tamil Nadu Co-operative Societies Act. Challenging the same, these writ petitions came to be filed.

2. The respondent has filed a counter affidavit and the learned counsel for the respondent submitted that aggrieved over the impugned orders, the petitioners should have filed revision under Section 153 of the Tamil Nadu Co-operative Societies Act, instead of filing these writ petitions. The said provision of Section 153 of the Act makes it clear that the Registrar, on application from any aggrieved person, shall call for and examine the record of any officer subordinate to him or any officer of the registered Society and examine in respect of any proceedings under the Act or the Rules or By-laws as to the regularity of such proceedings, legality or propriety of any decision passed therein.

3. In view of the said submission, without going into the merits of the case, this Court dispose of these writ petitions directing the petitioner to file a revision before the respondent under Section 153 of the Tamil Nadu Co-operative Societies Act and the respondent, on receipt of the same, is directed
