2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner had illegal intimacy with the defacto complainant's daughter-in-law and due to which, there was an altercation in between the petitioner and the defacto complainant and thereby, the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he is an innocent person and accordingly, he prays for anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the injured has been discharged from the Hospital.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the Hospital, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
