2.The case of the prosecution is that based on the secret information, the respondent police conducted raid and found 311 grams of Magic Mashroom from the accused persons. Hence the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that she is in custody from 26.11.2023. Hence, he prays to grant bail.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State would submit that the petitioner and the other accused were found in illegal possession of 311 grams of Magic Mashroom, which is a commercial quantity and in this case, investigation is pending. He would further submit that the petitioner has not satisfied the twin conditions as required under Section 37 of the NDPS Act. Hence, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5.Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the material records of the case.

6.Considering the fact that the contraband involved in this case is a commercial quantity and considering the fact that the petitioner has not satisfied the twin conditions as required under Section 37 of the NDPS Act, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.
