2. The case of the prosecution is that on 07.10.2023, the petitioner and other accused persons threatened the defacto complainant and robbed his cell phone, thereby, the defacto complainant made a complaint before the respondent Police.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that three previous cases are pending against the petitioner, which are not in similar nature and the stolen article was recovered. Hence, he has no objection to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that though three previous cases are pending against the petitioner, that are not in similar nature and the stolen article was recovered, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is granted anticipatory bail and he is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.IV, Tirunelveli, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties,
