2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner has illegally transported three units of sand by using Tipper Lorry.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, on instructions, he would further submit that the petitioner, without prejudice to his rights, is ready to deposit a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) to the High Court Environmental Committee and hence, he prays for anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail stating that the petitioner had transported three units of sand illegally and two previous cases are pending against the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the petitioner is ready to deposit some amount to the High Court Environmental Committee, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt
