2.The case of the prosecution is that the accused person entered into the bar being let out by the defacto complainant for rent to one K.R.Elangovan and threatening her with dire consequences. Hence, the defacto complainant preferred a complaint before the respondent Police.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner and others occupied the said premises with license with consent of the defacto complainant. The false complaint has been given against the petitioner and others to evict them from the said premises. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing fro the respondent would submit that there is no injured in this case. Hence, he has no objection to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
