2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was involved in illegal transportation of $\frac{1}{4}$ unit of river sand. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, on instructions, he further submitted that the petitioner, without prejudice to his rights, is ready to deposit a sum of Rs.5,000/- to the High Court Environmental Committee and hence, he prays for grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the State strongly opposed to grant bail stating that the petitioner was involved in illegal transportation of $\frac{1}{4}$ unit of river sand. However, he fairly conceded that no previous case is pending against the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the facts that no antecedent is reported against the petitioner and the petitioner is ready and willing to deposit a sum of Rs.5,000/- to the High Court Environmental Committee, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate Court,
