2.The case of the prosecution is that on 30.05.2023, when the de-facto complainant went to the library at his village, the petitioner picked up the de-facto complaint in his car and taken to Pattukottai, Aalthur, Ampalapattu Privu and asked the de-facto complainant “where his golden kada” and attacked and caused injuries to him. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) appearing for the State strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail stating that investigation is pending. However, he fairly conceded that the injured was already discharged from the hospital.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured was already discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
