2. The learned counsel for the petitioners seeks to quash the cases on compromise.

3. Joint compromise memo in both the cases are filed before this Court. The husband Manzoor Ali, who is the petitioner in CrI.O.P. (MD)No.1752 of 2023, and the wife Parshanaruhi are present before the Court. On questioning this Court, both of them seemed to understand the terms of compromise. They have resolved the marital conflict and have joined and are living together as husband and wife. In view thereof, since both these cases are arising out of the matrimonial discord, in view of the dictum laid down by the Honourable Supreme Court of India in B.S.Joshi and ors., Vs. State of Haryana and anr., reported in (2003) 4 SCC 675 and others and the subsequent judgments, since the parties have rejoined together, this is a fit case for exercise of powers under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. The joint memorandum of compromise shall also form part and parcel of the order. The other accused persons, who are the petitioners in CrI.O.P.(MD)No.23064 of 2024, are also present before this Court.
