3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that though the petitioner and his family members are in possession of the property in question for more than 15 years by paying the tax, the second respondent, without considering the said fact, has passed the impugned order directing the petitioner to evict the land in question.

4. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, we are of the view that as against the impugned order, the petitioner is having an appeal remedy before the District Collector under Section 10 of the Tamil Nadu Land Encroachment Act, 1905. Therefore, we are not inclined to entertain this Writ Petition and the same is liable to be dismissed with liberty to the petitioner to file an appeal before the District Collector.
