IPC and Section 4 of Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act, in Crime No.494 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to family dispute, the petitioners abused the de-facto complainant in filthy language and attacked her with stick and caused injuries to her. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that due to family dispute between the parties, the above said occurrence has taken place and hence, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners. However, he fairly conceded that the injured was already discharged from the hospital and the petitioners are having no previous case.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that it appears to be a family dispute and the injured was already discharged from the hospital and the petitioners have no previous antecedents, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
