4 of the Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act, in Crime No.4 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant, who is the mother of the first petitioner and mother-in-law of the second petitioner. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and due to property dispute, a false case has been foisted against them. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that it is a case and case in counter and the injured was already discharged form the hospital. However, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the facts that it appears to be a counter case and the injured was already discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is ordered and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the
