2.The case of the prosecution is that due to money dispute between the accused and the defacto complainant, on 14.01.2024, the petitioner said to have trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant and abused him with filthy language and assaulted him and caused injury to him. Hence, the Law Enforcing Agency, registered a case against the petitioner.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the injured was discharged from the hospital. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the State submitted that the injured was discharged from the hospital.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the facts that the injured was discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is granted anticipatory bail and he is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Kuzhithalai, Karur District, on condition that the
