2.The case of the prosecution is that on 20.01.2024, when the Village Administrative Officer of Moovanur Village was in routine patrol duty, he found that the driver of the Lorry bearing Registration No.TN-31-AX-6127 transporting the Gravel Sand from the petitioner's quarry by overwriting on permit copy. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, on instructions, he further submitted that the petitioner, without prejudice to his rights, is ready to deposit a sum of Rs.50,000/- to the High Court Environmental Committee and hence, he prays for grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the State strongly opposed to grant bail stating that the petitioner and other accused were involved in illegal transportation of gravel sand. However, he fairly conceded that no previous case is pending against the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the petitioner is ready and willing to deposit a sum of Rs.50,000/- to the High Court Environmental Committee, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of
