2.The case of the prosecution is that due to land dispute between A1 and the defacto complainant, the petitioner along with other accused said to have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and attacked him with deadly weapons and caused injuries to him. Hence, the defacto complainant made a complaint before the Law Enforcing Agency.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the injured was discharged from the hospital. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the State submitted that due to land dispute, the petitioner along with other accused, abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and attacked him with deadly weapon and caused injuries to him. Further, the petitioner is having 4 previous cases and the investigation is still pending. However, he fairly conceded that the injured was discharged from the hospital.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured was discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
