Crime No.40 of 2024 on the file of the respondent Police, seeks bail.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner is in judicial custody from 13.01.2024. However, on instructions, he would further submit that the petitioner, without prejudice to his rights, is ready to deposit a sum of Rs.2,000/- to the High Court Environmental Committee and hence, he prays for bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police strongly opposed to grant bail stating that the petitioner had transported $\frac{1}{4}$ unit of river sand illegally. However, he fairly conceded that no previous case is pending against the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that no bad antecedent is reported against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to
