2.The case of the prosecution is that on 12.01.2024, the husband of the defacto complainant enquired the accused persons about his missing cattle. At that time, there was wordy quarrel arose between them. Due to which, the petitioners abused him with filthy language and attacked him with wooden log and aruval and caused injuries to him. Hence, the defacto complainant lodged a complaint before the Law Enforcing Authority.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the injured was discharged from the hospital. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the State submitted that there was dispute between the parties regarding the missing cattle of the defacto complainant. The investigation is still pending However, he fairly conceded that the injured was discharged from the hospital.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured person has already been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
