3. Mr.S.Deenadhayalan, learned Standing Counsel appearing for the respondent would submit that in respect of the petitioner's property, there is a civil suit pending, hence, the respondents have not considered the case of the petitioner. However, the learned Standing Counsel would submit that if the petitioner has filed an indemnity bond, the respondents will take steps to provide electricity service connection, otherwise, problem will arise.

4. In view of the above, the petitioner is directed to file the indemnity bond and after receiving the indemnity bond, the respondents shall provide electricity service connection to the petitioner's house by following the procedures.

5. With the above direction, the writ petition stands disposed of. No costs.
