2.The case of the prosecution is that A1 was involved in a murder case and when such a case was in progress, A1 and the petitioners threatened the witnesses. Thereby, the defacto complainant made a complaint against the petitioners. Hence, the present case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case and A1 was already released on bail by the trial Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that the petitioners and A1 joined together and threatened the witnesses and hence, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that A1 was already released on bail by the trial Court, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is ordered and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court No.II, Kumbakonam, Thanjavur District, on
