2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with the other accused were illegally transported two units of gravel sand. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that this Court has granted anticipatory bail to the co-accused. However, on instructions, he further submitted that the petitioner, without prejudice to his rights, is ready to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) and hence, he prays for grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner along with the other accused have illegally transported two units of gravel sand by using tipper lorry and also submitted that this Court has granted anticipatory bail to the co-accused.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also grant of anticipatory bail to the co-accused by this Court, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Thuraiyur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees
