2.The case of the prosecution is that due to property dispute, the petitioner along with the other accused attacked the defacto complainant and others and caused injuries to them. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and also submitted that it is case in counter case.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and also the fact that it is a case in counter case, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is granted anticipatory bail and he is ordered to be
