2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner is running a Finance Company. The defacto complainant approached the petitioner's Finance Company to purchase a Cellphone. The petitioners gave a loan to the deceased wife of the defacto complainant for the purchase of Cellphone. The defacto complainant and his deceased wife paid only two instalments and thereafter, failed to pay the balance amount. Due to which, on 11.01.2024, the employees of the petitioner's Finance Company went to the house of the defacto complainant and abused his deceased wife in filthy language and also threatened her to return the amount. Because of that, the deceased wife of the defacto complainant consumed rat poison and committed suicide on 20.01.2024. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that admittedly, the employees of the petitioner's Finance Company went to the house of the defacto complainant on 11.01.2024 and they demanded only the balance amount from the deceased wife of the defacto complainant not demanded any exorbitant interest. Further, the employees of the petitioner's Finance Company went to the house of the defacto complainant, on 11.01.2024. But, the deceased committed suicide after 9 days of the occurrence i.e., on 20.01.2024. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the State submitted that on behalf of one Shahul, who is the neighbour of the defacto complainant, the defacto complainant, borrowed money from the petitioner's Finance Company for purchasing a Cellphone. After obtaining loan, the said Shahul failed to repay the same. But, the employees of the petitioner's Finance Company went to the house of the defacto complainant and abused his deceased wife and threatened her with dire consequences. Thereby, the deceased wife of the defacto complainant consumed rat poison and committed suicide. Further, the investigation is at preliminary stage. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.This Court perused the FIR. From the perusal of FIR, it is revealed that the employees of the petitioner's Finance Company went to the house of the defacto complainant and threatened the deceased wife of the defacto complainant on 11.01.2024. But, she committed suicide after 9 days of the occurrence i.e., on 20.01.2024.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that except the allegation against the petitioner that he is the owner of the Finance Company, no other allegation has been attributed against him, this Court is

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is granted anticipatory bail and he is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the Judicial Magistrate No.I, Karur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

(a) if the petitioner failed to surrender before the concerned Magistrate within a period of 15 days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, this order shall stand automatically cancelled;

(b) the sureties shall affix his photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Court concerned may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure his identity;

(c) the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m until further orders;

(d) the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

CRL OP(MD) No.1402 of 2024

(e) the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

(f) on breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/ Trial

Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji Vs. State of Kerala [(2005) AIR SCW 5560]; and;

(g) if the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229-A IPC.
