2.The case of the prosecution is that on 05.11.2023, the petitioner and other accused wrongfully restrained the deceased by an indica car and dashed against two wheeler, which was riding by the deceased and due to which, the deceased fell down. Thereafter, the accused persons got down from the car and abused the deceased in filthy language and stabbed him with knife all over the body and thereby, they committed murder of the deceased. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the co-accused were detained under Goondas Act and they were in prison. He would also submit that the petitioner was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 06.11.2023. Hence, he prayed for bail.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police would submit that it is a case of retaliation murder. All the accused joint together and committed murder of the deceased. He would further submit that A1 and A4 were detained under Goondas Act and A2 filed bail petition before the Court below and the same was dismissed. He would also submit that the investigation in this case completed and charge sheet also filed. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant bail to the petitioner. However, he would fairly submit that there is no previous case pending as against the petitioner.

5.Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner and period of incarceration suffered by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/-(Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Principal Sessions Judge, Thoothukudi and on further conditions that:
