2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with the other accused persons unlawfully assembled and blocked the road with dead body to breach the public peace. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police submitted that one previous case is pending against the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the allegation levelled against the petitioner, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is granted anticipatory bail and he is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned
