2. The case of the prosecution is that on 29.01.2024, wordy quarrel arose between the petitioners and the defacto complainant with regard to clear the traffic congestion on the road, which resulted, the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant and scolded him using filthy language. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Further, the injured is discharged from the hospital. So, he prays for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that injured is discharged from the hospital and the first petitioner is having five previous cases and the other petitioners have no previous cases at their credit. Hence, he has no objection to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that injured is discharged from the hospital, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are granted anticipatory bail and they are is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the
