2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was involved in illegal transportation of one unit of stream sand using tractor vehicle bearing Registration No.TN 65 V 3973. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, on instruction, he would further submit that the petitioner, without prejudice to his rights, is ready to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- to the Municipal Middle School, Aruppukkottai, Virudhunagar District, for purchasing books, hence, he prays for anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail stating that the petitioner had transported one unit of stream sand illegally and the said vehicle involved was seized by the respondent police and the investigation is going on.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the quantity of the sand transported by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Thiruchuli,
