2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused persons took a sum of Rs.1,500/- from the defacto complainant and threatened him by showing knife. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays for bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police would submit that five previous cases are pending against the petitioner. Hence, he vehemently opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that five previous cases are pending against the petitioner, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner herein.

6. In the result, the Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed.
