2. The case of the prosecution is that on 16.01.2024 at about 9.00 p.m., due to the family dispute, the second petitioner scolded the defacto complainant using filthy language and when the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant, scolded her using filthy language and also threatened her with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Further, the injured is discharged from the hospital. So, he prays for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that it is a family dispute, the defacto complainant sustained simple injury on her head and the injured is discharged from the hospital. Hence, he has no objection to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that injured is discharged from the hospital, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are granted anticipatory bail and they are is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the
