2.The case of the prosecution is that the accused persons fought themselves near road side and when the same was questioned by the de-facto complainant, a wordy quarrel arose between them, in which, A1 attacked the defacto complainant. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that the injured has suffered only a simple injury and he was already discharged from the hospital and the investigation is pending. However, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured person was already discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
