Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957 in Cr.No.29 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners were involved in illegal transportation of three units of gravel sand. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, on instructions, he further submitted that the petitioners, without prejudice to their rights, are ready to deposit a sum of Rs.15,000/- to the High Court Environmental Committee and hence, he prays for grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the State strongly opposed to grant bail stating that the petitioners and other accused were involved in illegal transportation of three units of gravel sand.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the amount of sand involved, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Manapparai, Trichy
