2.The case of the prosecution is that on 12.11.2023, the petitioner and the other accused went to the defacto complainant's house and abused the defacto complainant and her parents in filthy language and threatened her. Hence this complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that it is purely a family dispute between the petitioner and the defacto complainant. Therefore, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police submitted that the investigation is yet to be completed.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the fact that it is a family dispute between the petitioner and the defacto complainant, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
