ORDER

Today when the matter came up for hearing, the learned counsel appearing for the respondent submitted that the sole respondent in the case viz., S.Syed Mohammed had passed away pending the civil revision petition and he seeks time to get particulars of the LRs to be impleaded in the case.

2.Mr.R.R.Kannan, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that it is true that the sole respondent died. But, however, the civil revision petition arises out of the order passed by the District Collector/Appellate Tribunal, under the Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act, 2007, as such, no cause of action would survive after the death of the senior citizen and therefore, nothing survives for further adjudication in the matter.

3.Recording the same, the Civil Revision Petition is dismissed as having become infructuous. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
