2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused were found in illegal possession of 860 grams of Methamphetamine. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Further, the respondent Police sent samples to the forensic examination and report received by the Special Court for EC & NDPS Act Cases, Pudukkottai, that the said substances are free from drug and it is detected as sodium glutamate is commonly known as ajinomoto. Further, the petitioner is in judicial custody since 01.10.2023. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that though the first opinion reflects that it is ajinomoto, the samples were sent for second opinion to Bangalore. Hence, he vehemently objected to grant bail to the petitioner.

Information Report.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the period of incarceration suffered by the petitioner and the expert opinion reflects that it is not a contraband, it is only ajinomoto, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is ordered and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the Principal Special Court for EC & NDPS Act Cases, Pudukkottai, and on further conditions that:

(a) the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;

(b) the petitioner is directed to appear before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m., until further orders;

(c) the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during
