2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with the other accused persons made country made gun and also checked the same by throwing in the rock. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that two previous cases are pending against the petitioner and in those cases, this Court had granted anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is granted anticipatory bail and he is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of
