of 2024, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that during the village temple festival, the petitioners joined together and attacked the defacto complainant with bottles and due to which, defacto complainant sustained injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and also the fact that it is a case in counter case, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are granted anticipatory bail and they are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a
