CRL OP(MD) No.2396 of 2024

IPC, in Crime No.71 of 2024, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to the civil dispute between the parties, on 12.02.2024, the petitioner said to have trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant and abused him in filthy language and tried to attack him with deadly weapons. Hence, the defacto complainant made a complaint before the Law Enforcing Agency.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that no one has sustained in the said occurrence. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the State submitted that the defact complainant is a practicing advocate at Tirunelveli. Due to property dispute, the petitioner threatened the defacto complainant and tried to attack him. Apart from that, 2 previous cases are pending against the petitioner. Among them, one case is 302 IPC case and it was ended in convicted. Another case is 307 IPC case. Hence, he vehemently, opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the previous cases reported against the petitioner, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
