2.The case of the prosecution is that there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioner and the de-facto complainant's son, due to which, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant's son in filthy language and when the same was questioned by the defacto complainant's son, the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant's son and taken away the motor bike. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and it is a case and case in counter and a false case has been foisted against him. Hence, he prays for anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that it is a counter case and the injured person was already discharged from the hospital and the investigation is pending. However, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the facts that it appears to be a counter case and the injured person was already discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is ordered and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a
