2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners were involved in illegal transportation of five bags of river sand. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, on instruction, he would further submit that the petitioners, without prejudice to their rights, are ready to pay a sum of Rs.5,000/- each, to the High Court Environmental Committee, and hence, he prays for anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail stating that no previous case is pending against the petitioners.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the quantity of the sand transported by the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Thanjavur District, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) each, with two sureties each for a like sum
