3. Learned counsel for the appellant would submit that originally, the name of the appellant was not found in the FIR, however, later his name was implicated through the confession of co-accused. In the present case, the investigation was completed and charge sheet has also been filed and the same was taken on file in Spl.S.C.No.8 of 2024. Therefore, keeping the custody of the appellant would no way advance neither the investigation nor the prosecution case. The appellant has no any previous case and he has been falsely implicated in this case. The appellant who surrendered was remanded to judicial custody on 15.09.2023 and since then, he has been incarcerated and hence, if the appellant is released on bail, he is ready to abide any conditions imposed by this Court.

4. Mr.A.Thiruvadi Kumar, learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police vehemently contended that the accused would abscond and may tamper the evidence. He further submitted that the kith and kin of the deceased may face a life threat, if the appellant/accused is granted bail and hence, he has raised his strong objection to enlarge the appellant/accused on bail.
