The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent Police for the alleged offence under Sections 294(b), 323, 506(i) of IPC r/w. Section 4 of TNPHW Act, in Crime No.31 of 2024, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners are the close relatives of the defacto complainant and due to the civil dispute between them, the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant and others, scolded them using filthy language and also threatened them with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Further, it is a civil dispute between the parties and the injured are discharged from the hospital. So, he prays for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that injured are discharged from the hospital. Hence, he has no objection to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that injured are discharged from the hospital and it is the civil dispute between the parties, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
