2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and other accused were found in illegal possession of 1 kg and 500 grams of Ganja. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the contraband has been possessed by the petitioner is an intermediate quantity and not a commercial quantity and no similar previous case is pending against the petitioner. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that the petitioner and other accused were found in illegal possession of 1 kg and 500 grams of Ganja and the petitioner has no previous case. However, considering the allegation levelled against the petitioner, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the facts that no previous case is pending against the petitioner and the quantity of contraband involved in this case is an intermediate quantity, this Court is inclined to
