2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant preferred a complaint stating that the petitioner, who was working as a Village Assistant along with the Village Administrative Officer demanded Rs.5,000/- for making arrangement for issuance of joint patta. It is alleged that the VAO instructed the petitioner to receive the bribe and he received the money knowing fully well that it was bribe money. On the basis of the complaint, trap was laid and in the course of demanding and accepting the bribe amount, he was arrested on the spot and thereby, a case has been registered and after completing the formalities of investigation, final report has been filed for the offences punishable under Sections 12, 13(2) r/w. 13(1)(d) of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988.

3. During the trial process, on the side of the prosecution, 14 witnesses were examined, 29 documents and 5 material objects were also marked. On the side of the accused, 2 witnesses were examined and 7 documents were marked and no material object was marked.

4. At the conclusion of the trial and after hearing the arguments on either side, the trial Court found the petitioner guilty and sentenced him to undergo one year Rigorous Imprisonment and imposed a fine of Rs.5,000/- with default clause for the offence under Section 12 of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988; to undergo 2 years Rigorous Imprisonment and imposed a fine of Rs.5,000/- with default clause for the offence under Sections 12, 13(2) r/w. 13(1)(d) of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 and directed the sentences to run concurrently.

5. Challenging the above said conviction and sentence, criminal appeal has been preferred before this Court. Pending appeal, this criminal miscellaneous petition has been filed seeking suspension of sentence.

6. Learned counsel for the petitioner advanced his submissions on the grounds that the petitioner has been falsely implicated by the defacto complainant with an ulterior motive; that the initial demand was not properly proved by the prosecution; and that the prosecution has also failed to corroborate the evidence of prosecution witnesses. He further submitted that the trial Court was also pleased to suspend the sentence till 08.03.2024.

9. All the contentions that are raised by the petitioner can be taken only at the time of hearing the main appeal. The petitioner is not having any bad antecedent.

10. Considering the above said aspect and also considering the fact that it will take time to hear the main appeal for disposal, this Court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail.
