2.The case of the prosecution is that on 14.02.2024, when the defacto complainant went to pluck the lotus flowers, the accused along with other hooligans were destroying the lotus flowers and attacked the defacto complainant with stones and abused him in filthy language and also threatened to kill him. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and it is a case and case in counter and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that it is a counter case and the injured was already discharged from the hospital. However, considering the allegation levelled against the petitioners, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured was already discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is ordered and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the
