on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners were involved in illegal transportation of one ½ unit of river sand. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, on instructions, he further submitted that the petitioners, without prejudice to their rights, are ready to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- to the restoration of Kanmai situated around the Othakadai and Narasingam areas in Madurai District and hence, he prays for grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the State would submit that the petitioners were in illegal transportation of one ½ unit of river sand. No previous case is pending against the first petitioner and the second petitioner is having 1 previous case similar in nature.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the quantity of sand involved in this case, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt
