Crime No.56 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 14.02.2024 at about 08.15 p.m., the petitioner along with three other persons came to the shop run by the de-facto complainant and abused and slapped one Mr.Thavamani Kannan. When the defacto complainant intervened to stop the fight, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and attacked him with steel rod and threatened them by showing the steel rod. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that the injured person was already discharged from the hospital and the investigation is pending. However, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured person was already discharged from the hospital, this Court is
