2.The case of the prosecution is that due to previous motive, the petitioner along with other accused abused the defacto complainant and in filthy language and attacked her. Hence, the defacto complainant made a complaint before the Law Enforcing Agency.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that no one has sustained injury. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the State submitted that in the said occurrence, no one has sustained injury.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that no one has sustained injury in this case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is granted anticipatory bail and he is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of
