CRL OP(MD) No.2808 of 2024

IPC in Crime No.14 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the de-facto complainant is the daughter of one Perumal Nadar and the said Perumal Nadar had three daughters, including the defacto complainant herein. While so, the petitioner's father, namely, Murugan was not born to the biological parents of the defacto complainant. However, the petitioner's father helped the defacto complainant's father and mother, who were lost on the verge of their old age and taking advantage of the absence of the defacto complainant, the petitioner's father obtained a legal heir certificate from the revenue officials with the help of the petitioner. Thereby, the defacto complainant made a complaint before the respondent police. Hence, the case was registered against the petitioner.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that if it is a legal heir certificate issued, it has been cancelled only in the manner known to law and further the defacto complainant herself admitted that the petitioner's father is living along with the said Perumal Nadar and his wife and after death of the said Perumal Nadar and his wife and after conducting a detailed enquiry, the legal heir certificate was cancelled, in which, the petitioner is not responsible and if at all the defacto complainant has any grievance, she has to take steps to cancel the legal heir certificate in the manner known to law either before the Civil Court or before the Revenue official instead of filing the criminal complaint before the respondent police is not sustainable one. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the co-accused has already granted anticipatory bail by this Court in CrI.O.P.(MD).No.1346 of 2024 dated 05.02.2024.

5.Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is ordered and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on her appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.6, Madurai, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police
