2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner is working under the scheme of 100 days, however, he did not do any work and when the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prayed for anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) appearing for the State would submit that the injured was already discharged from the hospital.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured was already discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
