The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence under Sections 294(b), * 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.30 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was employer and employee dispute between the petitioner and the defacto complainant, due to which, on 23.04.2023 at about 17.30 hrs, the petitioner intercepted the defacto complainant and also abused him in filthy language and attacked him. Hence this complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police submitted that two previous cases are pending against the petitioner and also submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
